What the World's Greatest Managers Do Differently

Breaking the Rules Breaking a rule is far better than creating a scene in front of a customer. If there is any rule in the company that has been made only to increase the profits of the company, and to avoid losses, and it does not favour the customer, then the company has to face the wrath of the customer.

increases the odds he may bend the rules. Between the key with Avery's DNA, Avery's blood in the car, and the bullet with Halbach's DNA in Avery's garage, Detectives Lenk and Colborn would have had to break the rules multiple times. Leigh intuition might lead to the deduction that this makes framing less probable.
